On March 22, 2014, the ZSO's Entertainment Committee and Kanoun jointly celebrated Norouz with a Persian dinner-dance festivity at Panamonte Banquet Hall. A 55" LED TV was the grand prize raffle draw. We look forward to many such joint events and cultural celebrations, and thank all of the organizers, sponsors, advertisers and volunteers for their hard work and efforts.

MARCH 21 JASHAN & DINNER: To celebrate Jamshedi Norouz, a jashan and dinner was held at the Darbe Mehr on Friday, March 21. OBITUARY: Bomy Boyce (83) passed away on December 23, 2013. He was born in Mumbai and was married to Dina Bilimoria. Together they had two children, Jamsheed Boyce and Phee Vania, and two granddaughters, Alison Boyce and Diana Vania. Bomy was extremely involved in and committed to the Zoroastrian community as a driving force in the establishment of the Zoroastrian Society of Ontario, President of the ZSO, and in more recent years, worldwide President of the World Zarathushti Chamber of Commerce. He was constantly striving to enhance our community's profile and prospects. In his long and successful career, he espoused a global business environment years before others did, helping companies expand internationally and facilitating technology and knowledge transfer between continents.

Bomy loved to travel and developed long-lasting friendships with people from around the world. He was always compassionate towards others and believed that any opportunity to help someone was an obligation to help. Bomy was especially eager to help youth fund their education, find a job, or start their own business. He had a tremendous influence on those around him and was very respected and admired by all who knew him. Bomy was self-sufficient, fair, compassionate, and loving, and he left behind a powerful legacy of leadership and service.

NORIA FAMILY FELICITATION: Farokh and Dhun Noria have always given back, constantly aiming to better their community. Through volunteering with the ZSO and her career at The Scarborough Hospital, Dr. Dhun Noria has demonstrated great leadership and dedication. Continuing with the tradition of giving back and helping others, the Noria family recently presented a donation of $1 million to The Scarborough Hospital Foundation. In honour of the generous donation, the laboratories at The Scarborough Hospital have been named the Farokh and Dhun Noria Laboratory. In recognition of Dhun's outstanding contributions to the Toronto community as a physician, philanthropist, and leader, she has also been named the recipient of this year's Scarborough World Gala Lifetime Achievement Award. The community congratulates the Noria family on their many achievements and contributions.

RETURN TO ROOTS: The inaugural Zoroastrian Return to Roots (RTR) trip took place from December 24, 2013 – January 6, 2014 in India. Working under the auspices of the UNESCO Parzor Foundation, RTR reconnects Zoroastrian youth in the diaspora with their Indian and Iranian origins. During the first Roots trip, youth from Canada, USA, UK, and Pakistan travelled through Mumbai and Gujarat to experience the history and culture of our Parsi ancestors.

Visiting agiaries and Atash Behrams allowed Fellows to experience our religious practices and customs, while learning about the history of valued Parsi establishments (such as the Taj Hotel, Britannia Restaurant, Meherjirana Library) enabled participants to appreciate the positive influence the Parsis have had on India's development. Through the program, participants gained a deeper understanding of Zoroastrianism, a sense of community and identity, an expanded network of motivated and like-minded Zoroastrians, and a desire to contribute and give back to our community.

This program is an essential step to maintaining our Zoroastrian values, ideas, and traditions for future generations. RTR Fellows hope that more Zoroastrian youth are able to engage in future trips. The Roots program has been generously sponsored by donors from our global community. If you are interested in supporting us or in becoming a Fellow on the next trip (end of 2014), please visit www.zororoots.org.

(Contributed by Diana Vania who represented the ZSO on the RTR trip to India in Dec 2013)

100 TORONTO SCOUT GROUP: The Scout group kept up with the festive tradition and celebrated Norouz on March 23 at the Darbe Mehr. 75 scouts, leaders and parents were kept busy playing games, watching videos on Norouz festivities, etc. organized by Khushamin Chothia. All present were treated to a delicious lunch of sabzi-pulao, ghermih, kabobs and falooda prepared by Shiraz Tampal and Kersi Khambatta. On other dates, scouts were busy
