BOARD OF DIRECTORS CORNER

Another New Year in our Shahenshahi calendar was ushered in with a Jashan performed by our revered Mobeds which was well attended. All chairs at the Darbe Mehr were occupied and soon standing room was in short supply. Exchange of greetings and best wishes rung in the air. The delicious dinner prepared by Kersi Khambatta and his Team was enjoyed by all. Some of our members were felicitated and awarded plaques as a small token of ZSO's appreciation for their many years of voluntary service to our community. The recipient of the annual ZSO Scholarship award was also announced.

Another record attendance was witnessed at the Khordad sal Jashan, followed by a sumptuous dinner. A detailed report of the Navroze and Khordad sal celebrations appears elsewhere in this Newsletter.

In the days leading up to Navroze, ZSO continued its tradition of over 3 decades in performing the Muktaad ceremonies with all the rituals and prayers during the five Gatha days. Under the leadership of Putli Mirza and her band of many volunteers including some who called Darbe Mehr home during those 5 days, they started their days very early, meeting every need of the Mobeds as well as catering for lunches and dinners for both the volunteers and those who attended for prayers. We cannot sufficiently thank our Mobeds and volunteers for their dedication and commitment to the Zarthushti religion. Our thanks also to all the volunteers who participated in the pre Muktaad cleanup.

Please refer to the first page for upcoming events. The Farvardegan and Dastoorji Kookadaroo Jashans will both be followed by lunch. On October 22nd, ZSO is staging its Bollywood Music Nite with our ever popular vocalists Khurshed Patel and Dinaz Hira. For full details please refer to the attached flyer.

We are pleased to announce that Anahita Ogra and Cyrus Zandian have been reappointed to the Board in their respective positions of Secretary and Assistant Treasurer. Several improvements continue to be made at the Darbe Mehr. The lighting in the prayer room was changed with energy saving LED bulbs, and a more powerful exhaust fan has been installed. Further improvements are on the cards.

We conclude with wishing all our members the very best for the year ahead. Children will be back at schools and universities. We wish all our children continued success in their scholastic endeavours.

ROME AT THE ROM

The Royal Ontario Museum volunteers will be presenters at our Seniors' event at 11am Friday September 30, 2016.

They will describe interesting aspects of life in Roman empire, and their lasting influence on western culture.

- Were there really 5 story buildings 2,000 years ago?
- Did gladiators always fight to the death?
- What was a Roman delicacy at meal time?
- How much were Legionnaires paid?
- How did men and women style their hair?

Come to the Seniors' event on September 30 to learn the answers and more.

NAVROZE 2016

August 17th, 2016 marked the start of Y.Z. 1386 in the Zoroastrian Shahenshahi Calendar and the ZSO community celebrated with the typical makings of a good Parsi event – prayers, good food and good friends.

A sold out event as in previous years, the evening starting with a Jashan performed by a few of our own community priests; Ervads Hoshang Udvadia, Athavian Bamji, Noshir Mirza, Mehbod and Xerxes Dastur, Khushroo Bharda and Cyrus Panthakee. This was followed by a Hum Bandagi led by Hoshang Udvadia and some interesting facts about Asho Zarathustra's life and the teachings that make us all good Zarathusti's.

This year, the Board recognized a few key members of the community without whose continued contributions of their time and love – functions such as these would not be possible. First up was Ervad Athavian Bamji who was recognized for his continued service to the Zoroastrian community. Ervad Bamji was bestowed a traditional shawl by Ervad Udvadia and presented with a plaque by ZSO president, Russi Surti, to commemorate this honour.

The ZSO community also recognized the selfless services of Minoo and Putli Bharda who can be counted on to chip in anyway, anywhere and anytime.

Next on the agenda was the announcement of the 2016 ZSO Education Scholarship winner. This year the $1,000 scholarship was presented to Tanushka Doctor – daughter of Rukshana and Nozer Doctor. Tanushka continues to be active within the Zoroastrian community as well as committing to keeping her grades up. Congratulations Tanushka and the community wishes you every success in your studies and beyond.

In addition to the above, our resident caretaker Farokh Farhadian was felicitated for his ongoing commitment to keeping the Darbe Mehr running as smoothly as it does and looking after all our needs.

The felicitations ended with Putli Mirza recognized with a standing ovation for organising the annual Mukta prayers for the past 35 years. A woman who personifies good thoughts, good words and good deeds through her daily life.

To top off the evening a fantastic dinner was prepared and served by Kersi Khambatta and his team of volunteers. The perfect ending to a wonderful event.

Thanks to all for coming out and celebrating!

Update on Ariana Quettawala

Good news from the parents, Mitra & Kaeyan! Following the third bone marrow transplant, Ariana's body is now able to produce both her own platelets and hemoglobin – a significant milestone in her continued treatment. Levels are still low but this will improve with time. Her parents send the following message to the entire community:

“We wish to thank the entire Zarthosti community not only in Pakistan but ALL OVER THE WORLD for standing beside us in our hour of need and giving us the strength & courage every step of the way. Ariana's illness has been hard on us but the overwhelming love and support from our entire community has lightened the load and our hearts for which we thank you forever. May Ahura Mazda bless you all.

With deep gratitude,

Mitra & Kaeyan Quettawala”

Let us continue to keep them all in our prayers.

8th Annual Cricket Dhansak

This year we will be holding the 8th Annual OZCF Cricket Dhansak event on Saturday, September 17, 2016 at 11.30am. Most of you know that Bejan Sidhwa loved Cricket and played for the Zoroastrian Cricket Club (ZCC) in Canada for many years and attended every single Cricket Dhansak event held at the OZCF. Not only did Bejan take part in the Cricket, he was always helping lay the matting down and picking it up. He did this up to last year, at the age of 89. To honour Uncle Bejan, we will be holding this event as a Memorial for his extraordinary life. The day will start with a show of respect for Bejan, followed by our usual cricket game. There will be a break for snacks and then Dhansak at 6.00pm.

The cost will be:

Cricket only - FREE
Dhansak - $15 per person

Please do send in your names to Rumi Jasavala at rumijas@hotmail.com stating if you will be there for Cricket and Dhansak or Dhansak only.

Please note that you need to register for both Cricket and the Dhansak.

The day's activities are as follows:
