President's Message

On behalf of the ZSO board of directors, we wish everyone a happy new year with many more wonderful things to come in the upcoming 2024. I must express my gratitude for making 2023 such a great year for our Zoroastrian community especially thanking the current board.

The Volunteer Appreciation Day on December 2nd was a great success and an event that filled the MGDM. The evening was filled with great food, and entertainment by our Zoroastrian youths and special thanks went out to all the amazing previous Mukhtad committee members which was headed by Putli Mirza. The food was prepared and arranged by your board of directors as a way of thanking all the ZSO volunteers who help keep our community active and engaged.

Toronto Scouts Celebrate Christmas at ZSO

In the spirit of festive cheer, the 100th Toronto Scouts group hosted a Christmas party on December 17th, 2023. The event brought together beavers, cubs, and scouts, to celebrate the holiday season.

The ZSO venue provided the perfect setting for an afternoon filled with laughter, music, and the warmth of the holiday season. The festivities kicked off with the regular flag ceremonies and a welcome by the joint group commissioner Ferozshaw Ogra. The beavers and cubs wore festive attire and eagerly waited to participate in the activities planned for them.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the Christmas gingerbread cookie decoration activity organized for the beavers and cubs. The creativity of beavers and cubs decorating the cookies and Christmas music created a festive ambiance truly capturing the Christmas Spirit.

The ZSO venue was transformed into a winter wonderland all thanks to the volunteers who played a crucial role in ensuring the event was seamless. They helped in the kitchen to cook the delicious meal from 8:30 a.m. and were also dressed up as Elf and Santa for the photo booth. Anyone could click a picture with them for $2. The proceeds of the same would go towards fundraising for the Scotland Jamboree 2024.

Santa Claus and his Elf!

A sumptuous feast awaited the scouts, featuring an array of delicious treats and traditional holiday dishes. The scouts, leaders, and their families cumulating over a hundred people enjoyed a delightful meal together, further strengthening the bonds of friendship within the scouting community.

The Christmas party held at ZSO by the Toronto scouts was not only a celebration of the holiday season but also a testament to the values of unity, friendship, and community that are at the heart of scouting.

In the end, the event left everyone with memories and a sense of gratitude for the opportunity to come together and celebrate the magic of Christmas.

The Toronto Scouts at ZSO truly showcased the spirit of scouting, reminding us all that the bonds formed in the scouting community are as enduring as the festive joy that fills our hearts during this time of the year.

Return To Roots 7 - Making It's Way Through India

The 7th Return to Roots Program hosted in India this year is making its way from Bombay to Nargol to Udvada to Navsari then through Surat, then finally making its way back to Bombay. The trip started on December 21st, 2023 and is running till January 3rd, 2024. With 4 out of the 28 participants coming from Toronto, The Zoroastrian Return to Roots (RTR) trip is a youth initiative designed to strengthen the idea of Zoroastrian identity among the global youth. The program birthed from an increasing disconnect between Zoroastrians in the diaspora and their ancestral communities in Iran and India. The trip fosters and facilitates community links and identity by taking small groups of youth to explore their religious, social, and cultural heritage. Follow their journey through India on the Zoro Roots Facebook and Instagram Page @Zororoots.

Message From The New Library Committee Chair – Armaity Homavazir

I am extremely pleased to be taking on this position. Many thanks to Aban Amroliwalla who successfully kept the library going for so many years.

I hope that with the support of our community, we can create a world-class library that not only draws our Zoroastrian students, but high school and university students from across the GTA.

One of our first tasks involves building new shelves for our collection and organizing the current collection. Another goal will be to complete the digital list of our collection and barcode all the books that we currently hold. If you have a background in Library Science, we would love to have you join us.

We kindly ask you to please hold off on any donations until the new year. Book donations can be made by contacting Armaity directly. Please do not dump any boxes or bags until notifying us first. Stay tuned for more exciting announcements in the early months of 2024!

Q&A Session With Diana Katgara

The ZSO recently organized a highly informative event for university and college applications. It was attended by approximately 10 participants, including high school students and parents, providing invaluable insights into the university application process. The event was skillfully hosted by Diana Katgara and Nasha Makujina. Diana spearheaded a 45-minute presentation, which delved into the intricacies of applying to universities and colleges in Ontario, offering a comprehensive overview of the entire process.

There was a special guest Anisa Ostad, hailing from the United States, who shared her expertise on applying to post-secondary education across the border. Attendees were captivated by Anisa's insights into the American application system, providing a well-rounded perspective for those considering international options. Moreover, the event featured personal anecdotes and experiences from Taronish Kotwall, Nasha, and Anisa, shedding light on their own university application journeys and subsequent experiences. The diverse array of speakers made the event engaging and relatable, creating a dynamic platform for participants to gather valuable information.

Feedback from attendees unanimously echoed appreciation for the event, expressing a desire for future iterations. One suggestion was to organize a similar event in person, preferably around the middle of October, preceding the university application season that typically kicks off in early January. This feedback highlights the value participants found in the event and their enthusiasm for more interactive sessions that could potentially enhance the learning experience further.

Scouts Lock-in Camp

On the weekend of December 9th, the 100th Toronto Scouts hosted their annual lock-in camp at the ZSO. The scouts and ventures do this camp annually as a reset and chill camp for the youth. They enjoy good food, good times, and plenty of fun experiences that we typically don't encounter while camping outdoors.

The weekend kicked off with a culinary adventure, featuring a delectable chicken dhansak and a brownie baking challenge. The subsequent night unfolded with an abundance of popcorn and a cinematic journey, setting the stage for a Saturday focused on honing cooking skills through a spirited competition. Scouts, working collaboratively in groups, crafted their culinary masterpieces, with the Kemo and Rice group emerging victorious for their outstanding creations, presentation, and teamwork.

The energy of the camp soared with a dynamic volleyball game led by the skilled guidance of Scouter Jason. Following the intense match, the scouts embarked on a meticulously planned night out organized by Scouter Kashmira. The venue of choice,

'The Bubble Toronto,' lived up to its billing as the city's largest indoor bouncy castle for adults, complete with slides, climbing walls, and trampolines. Despite fatigue from the bouncing escapades, the youth insisted on a detour to Yorkdale Mall for a luxury shopping experience, wisely refraining from making any purchases.

As the day drew to a close, the group reconvened for a family-style dinner at a distinguished Hakka Chinese restaurant. This provided a moment of respite and reflection on the day's adventures. A brief Tim Hortons run preceded the return to ZSO, where an impromptu rain dance by the youth added a whimsical touch to the evening. The night concluded with games, movies, and shared moments over popcorn and hot cocoa.

Sunday morning ushered in a collective sense of exhaustion, prompting the decision to wind down camp activities. Scouts rallied to clean up, pack their belongings, and close the camp, enjoying a tranquil period of relaxation until pick-up.

Scouts doing various outdoor and indoor activities

Overall, this year's ZSO camp stands as a testament to the success of the Toronto Scouts' endeavors. Beyond its role as a cherished tradition, the event serves as a prelude to upcoming fundraising initiatives. These efforts are aimed at supporting the upcoming Jamborette in Scotland next summer, further reinforcing the scouts' commitment to growth and global connections.

Heartfelt appreciation extends to the attending youth for their enthusiastic participation, and special recognition is reserved for the dedicated leaders who orchestrated the success of this memorable event. As the 100th Toronto Scouts Annual Lock-In Camp at ZSO draws to a close, it leaves an indelible mark on the scouting community, embodying the spirit of celebration, camaraderie, and shared achievement.

Mental Health Corner

If you have had a dog or a cat then please answer this question: Is it possible for a dog or a cat to wake up and NOT stretch?

The truth is that when it comes to self-stretching, monkeys, dogs, cats, tigers, and other animals are instinctively more intelligent than us. They realize that when they get up from sleep or even a short nap, they must stretch out their spine, arms, and legs before they start moving around.

However, perhaps due to our busy lifestyle, many adult humans have lost that instinct. We get up in the morning and the first thing we think about may be, "I have to shower, get ready for work, get my coffee..." and nowhere in the thought process is the instinct, "I should stretch for a few seconds before I face the day."

Dog stretch

In an ideal world, every one of us would do an hour of yoga on a daily basis to help us achieve optimal mobility, strength and mental health. The good news is that perhaps just doing even a few minutes, or a few seconds of self-stretching daily may also be of tremendous benefit. After all, dogs and cats don't attend one-hour yoga classes, but they certainly do several short bouts of self-stretches every day!

My daughter Nadia Jam stretching.

In Summary: We need to learn from dogs, and cats that the first thing we need to do the moment we get out of bed is to yawn and stretch our body in every direction possible.

Sunday Scriptures – Translated Yasna 28.4

Gatha Ahunavaiti, Yasna 28.4

Ye urvanem men gaire
Vohu dade hathra Manangha
ashishcha shyaothananam vidush
Mazdao Ahurahya
yavat isai tavacha
avat khsai aeshe Ashahya

I shall lead to its Exalted Home, the soul,
In tune with the Vohu Mano, to Garothman, its goal;
Knowing well the blessings that follow from each deed
Performed in the name of our Ahura Mazda, indeed!
As long as with strength and with power I thrive,
So long shall I teach men towards Asha to strive!

The Poetry Of the Prophet by Jimmy Nadershaw Sidhva

Gatha Ahunavaiti, Yasna 28.4

Versa four of Ha twenty-eight of the Yasna describes Prophet Zarathustra's firm commitment to uplift the spiritual life of the human race.

He promises to lead each soul with Good Thoughts - "In tune with Vohu Mano" - to its ultimate heavenly destination, Garothman. In a later verse, 46.10, he even declares that he will march such souls "over Chinvat Bridge in triumphant line!"

He reiterates the blessings which are the rewards for good deeds done for Ahura Mazda.
